

Supply chain hindsight, beforehand.

Your key supplier has just gone bust.
The proverbial wheels are about to come off your productivity.
But you have SCAIR™ from InterSys™ – technology that helps you look ahead to quantify the impact of a critical supply point failure on your bottom line.
So six months ago you were able to formulate continuity plans, take out appropriate insurance and identify replacement suppliers.

All you have to do now, is look back and congratulate yourself.
